

The Hilbert Series of Paths

Tiffany Nielander

University of Central Florida

Hilbert series and related invariants of graph rings for paths are discussed. Utilizing a result of Kyle Trainor, these Hilbert series can be shown to satisfy second or higher-order difference equations. This method permits the determination of the Hilbert series of these and other graph classes for which previous results have been limited.

In Special Session 13 on Influences of Combinatorics and Topology in Commutative Algebra at the Mathematical Congress of the Americas 2025.