

Singular solutions in punctured balls for truncated laplacians

Fabiana Leoni

Sapienza University of Rome

We consider the eigenvalue problem for a class of fully nonlinear degenerate elliptic equations having the truncated laplacians of order k as principal part, and including radial singular potential of order $\gamma > 0$. We discuss the existence and the regularity of the principal eigenfunctions, in dependence of the mutual values of k and γ .

In Special Session 20 on Advances in Nonlinear PDEs, Analysis and Geometry at the Mathematical Congress of the Americas 2025.