

Reductive quotients of log terminal singularities

Joaquín Moraga

UCLA (USA)

Many classes of singularities are preserved under reductive quotients, i.e., by taking quotients by the action of a reductive group. In this talk, we will review some classic results and then discuss some recent and open results regarding singularities of the MMP.

In Special Session 26 on Foliations and Singularities at the Mathematical Congress of the Americas 2025.