

The orthosystole of ideal polygons

Maxime Fortier Bourque

Université de Montréal

We prove that the regular ideal n -gon maximizes the length of the shortest geodesic arc between non-consecutive sides (as well as many variants of this functional) among all ideal hyperbolic n -gons.

In Special Session 34 on Randomness in Low-Dimensional Geometry at the Mathematical Congress of the Americas 2025.