

Random walk in birth-and-death environments

Luiz Renato Fontes

Universidade de Sao Paulo (Brazil)

We survey recent results on the asymptotics of continuous time random walks on Z^d with time inhomogeneous jump rates given by a decreasing function of an environment given by independent birth-and-death processes, in particular, diffusive behavior under sufficient ergodicity of the environment, and subdiffusivity under null recurrence and transience.

In Special Session 51 on Discrete Stochastic Models and Applications at the Mathematical Congress of the Americas 2025.